Past Life Journeys of Gea and Zen: Life in the Jungle Gabrijela Solomon 2013-03-13 Past Life Journeys of Gea and Zen is a true story of two spirits, whose magnetic bond transcended time and space. It is a collection of books that guides us through several of their reincarnations. Details about Gea's and Zen's past lives were retrieved through channeling during actual past life sessions that the author had with a gifted medium. In the book Life in the Jungle, Gea and Zen were incarnated on Earth around 950 AD. They were born as Aani and Ercu in the lush rainforest of South America near the Iguazu Falls. While growing up in indigenous opposing warring tribes, Aani became a healer and Ercu a hunter and a tribal leader. In that life, their purpose was to develop selflessness and the capacity for unselfish love. They connected in their devotion to each other, but their tribes did everything to break them apart...

Using sources from the Hindu Akashic Records and the Book of Life or Book of Remembrance, as well as Kabbalistic and Gnostic teachings, he gives us examples of how our soul sees life rather than our earthly self's view. You'll learn practical lessons and spiritual insights, such as: Philosophical answers to life's biggest questions, backed by scientific discovery. What hypnosis is, and how it can benefit you. Repetition Doris Eliana Cohen 2008 This fascinating book by Doris Eliana Cohen, Ph.D., was written to help us create a shift in our own consciousness as well as that of humanity. In order to heal from traumas, we unknowingly repeat the stories of our lives again and again, reliving them in different scenarios in this life as well as in other lifetimes. This repetition of our behavior patterns is neither neurotic nor pathological. It is absolutely necessary, because painful though it may be, repetition offers us multiple opportunities for facing our issues, making new choices, and healing ourselves at last. All of us have a God-given gift of free choice, although we may be unaware of it at times. Only when we acknowledge and take full responsibility for the choices we've made in our current and past lives can we begin to change our stories and end the suffering we've been causing ourselves. This material is based on Doris's 30 years of clinical experience with patients, using traditional therapy techniques combined with past-life regression therapy. It is guided and inspired by her communication with Guides and Angels of the Light, who have accompanied her for many years. Within these pages, Doris presents the 7 Steps of Rebirth, which provide a profound yet swift and simple route to change our lives and heal ourselves. Her 4 Steps of Joy offer a powerful tool for accessing the Light swiftly and easily. Remembering the events of our past lives provides a rich and fascinating tapestry of our journey, resulting in the humbling and uplifting realization that our souls are on a grand adventure. In owning our stories, we move from seeing ourselves as victims of life to empowering ourselves as co-creators of our destiny.

Past Life Dreamwork Sabine Lucas 2008-04-18 The first book to approach reincarnation from the perspective of dreams • Identifies soul bloodlines, the key to past life therapies • Combines the author's own experiences with case studies and dreamwork with empirical research • Reveals how the analyst and client are often karmically linked In Past Life Dreamwork, Sabine Lucas examines "soul bloodlines"--character traits, talents, and life issues that are the common elements and circumstances of successive past lives. Found threaded through our dreams, these bloodlines reveal the forces manifesting in this life, and, taken together, they shape individuality as well as destiny within the reincarnation cycle. Though a wealth of past life related material regularly surfaces in dreams, until now dreamwork has been largely ignored as a therapy for successfully integrating past life experiences. Using the results of 27 years of personal and professional work, Lucas explains that past life memories help us work out karma on the macro level and trauma on a micro level. She distinguishes three types of past life dreams--classic, informatory, and hybrid--and demonstrates how to distinguish these from other dreams. Her dramatic case studies illustrate the effectiveness of dream therapy in recognizing and integrating the resonant and recurrent circumstances and ethical dilemmas that are played out in the subconscious mind. These psychologically revealing stories bear witness to how individuals are made whole through the integration of common strands of forgotten or repressed past lives. Lucas shows that the integration of past lives enriches the conscious self and also promotes universal tolerance through an understanding of the patterns of our psychic soul inheritance.

Past Life Journeys of Gea and Zen: Life Among Native Americans Gabrijela Solomon 2013-03-13 Past Life Journeys of Gea and Zen is a true story of two spirits whose magnetic bond transcended time and space. It is a collection of books that guides us through several of their reincarnations. Details of Gea's and Zen's past lives were retrieved through channeling conducted during actual past life sessions that the author had with a gifted medium. Life Among Native Americans portrays the lives of Gea and Zen in the mid 1400's, when they were born into Coast Salish tribes as Tala and Spukani. They were tough-skinned survivors who roamed across the hills and valleys of the Pacific Northwest. As a little boy, Spukani acquired healing powers that made him into a distinguished medicine man. He came to save Tala's life when she was on the verge of death, so they connected and became companions. As their relationship grew, they worked together to heal people from many tribes. Life Among Native Americans is the second book in the collection.

Leading Mind Peter Hey 2019-02-14 With his blend of engineering and the fields of personal transformation, Peter Hey takes us on a deep, yet accessible journey into the inner recesses of our minds. He presents a unique model of the mind and the mechanisms that define our behavior. Based on his own personal experiences as the son of a Holocaust survivor, his sessions with his own clients and his background in computer design, he brings the concept of programs in our unconscious as the basic mechanism that determines our actions. Millions of programs operating below our everyday awareness, each of them associated with emotions that, in fact, are the actual power behind our decisions in daily life. Leading Mind explains how these programs are created from all our experiences, starting already at conception, through our time in the mother's womb, all the way to full adulthood. It also shows how, when accessing our deep unconscious, we discover aspects in us that transcend our current physical life. Based on thousands and thousands of sessions done by practitioners around the world, with remarkably consistent results across cultures, education, social status and personal beliefs. Leading Mind shows how the current events that are impacting our civilization nowadays are the result of our emotional ignorance. It brings to light an urgent call to reform our educational curriculum to teach how our mind works and tools for personal transformation and conflict resolution. Understanding our minds brings tolerance and compassion for all. It gives us the knowledge to change our limiting behaviors. The start of real personal power to direct our lives in the direction that is our authentic individual expression.

The Third Path Bud Carroll 2013-08-01 "When I finished reading this book, all I could say was WOW! What a stunning piece of literary work... It is concise, brilliantly written, backed by scientific findings, with clear human logic and intelligence. If this doesn't awaken the masses to delve into who and what they truly are, I can't imagine what will." ~ Jerry Issa, teacher of metaphysics, Trenton, Michigan This book will change your life if you let it. If we are accidental beings on a remote planet in a vast universe, existing for merely a blip in cosmic time, what's the point of living at all? Until we learn life is too significant to be a short-lived brilliance that rises out of nothing and ends in nothing, we will continue to live out our lives in, what Thoreau saw as, quiet desperation. We sense the materialistic wall when we ask the question, "Is that all there is?" Without resorting to miracles or magic, this book provides compelling evidence of life beyond the physical world by logically investigating the limitations of matter in the universe, by examining the gaps in scientific theories and by analyzing what the mystics already know about a spiritual existence. It takes a dedicated seeker with no preconceived ideas and no intent on arriving to see beyond the materialistic wall. This book is intended to expand your awareness of life here and hereafter, hopefully providing the spark that will start you on your own personal pilgrimage. The mystics tell us we will be guided to the next step along our spiritual path when we are ready. Are you ready? AWARENESS: The following might be the thoughts of those at different levels of awareness as they walk through a rose garden. I want - I wonder how much I could get for these roses. I believe - God created roses when He created the world and everything in it. I doubt - Roses evolved from wild flowering shrubs, but most garden varieties are hybrids. I seek - How could anything as beautiful as a rose happen purely by chance? I know - Roses, like all life on Earth, are physical manifestations of spirit.

Past Life Regression Using Your Religious Belief Babu Moses 2018-11-09 Dr. Babu Moses, based on his Hindu/Indian heritage and from his clinical experiences as board-certified electromyographer/hypnotherapist, takes past life regression into a profound religious experience through biblical concepts. Those who believe in reincarnation, in the verses from the Bible, in Matthew 17:12-13, Jesus told the disciples that Elias reincarnated as John the Baptist. Again, in Mathew 22:31-32, Jesus said, "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Issac, and the God of Jacob. God is not the God of the dead, but of the living." In that case, all of them could be living among us.

For those who believe in reincarnation, this book will expand their knowledge and experience. Those who do not believe, all past life regression scripts are also meditation scripts. This book will lead into deeper meaning of knowing the purpose and destiny of this life.

Life Journeys Petra Eisel 2018-03-14 Have you ever questioned life after death? Do you wonder what it could be like? How different is it to the life you presently live? Is there only one place in heaven or can you 'move' around like on Planet Earth? Is there anything you do during your sleep time? Do Angels exist? Once again, my trio of Guides will answer many questions, some of which you did not know you needed to ask. Open your mind to new journeys and explorations. We like to take away your fear of death and help you enjoy your life in the physical reality even more. Once again Dear Reader, relax and let us show you different life experiences. Reviews I was literally blown away with this book, I could not put it down! What an excellent resource to every question you could possibly ask about this life and beyond. Well written and completely engaging I can't recommend Petra's book enough. Melissa Barry, Australia I very liked the straight forward approach. It seems that Max and his group have gone far beyond other spirit guides in transposing their knowledge into understandable human terms. In reading "Seth" stuff I continually felt that I was not grasping much of what was being presented, not so with this material. I am looking forward to Petra and Max's next books. John Kramar, Bel Air, Maryland United States The insights in the book "Life Journeys" are reassuring and comforting in an insane world. Diana Excerpt In the second edition of Life Journeys, the focus this time is more on the nonphysical universe to give you some idea of what life is about when you actually die. The choices are many, the places are unique and the possibilities are endless. This does not mean that your life on Earth is less exciting, even though, at times life on Earth seems to be hard and difficult. Nevertheless, everyone had lifetimes when living in luxury and plenty had become a very boring adventure. Yes, remember you have chosen your life for a purpose and we like to emphasise that every single human being has a purpose.

Past Life DNA Julia Thornbrough 2015-12-15 To BREAK the CYCLE. . . Love Yourself First Whenever asked, Katie Lizowski had always said, "Sure, I love myself." In her naiveté she assumed that had made it so. But the challenge of loving herself was not that simple. To love herself required trust in the unknown, honoring her feelings in the face of intimidation, and surrendering her ego. And what had Katie done the better part of her life? Caved in to what she had really wanted to pursue and kept quiet about her true feelings and opinions. And why had she done that? It would keep the peace and make everyone happy. Or so she thought. But in its wake, she had built up colossal layers of anger and resentment. Now ask yourself this? Do you have goals you've dismissed because of fear of the unknown or from another's intimidation? Do you have feelings and opinions about something no one else knows about but you? And those feelings and experiences get replayed over and over in your mind? Is your life stuck in neutral? Julia Thornbrough's journey as seen through the eyes of Katherine Lizowski shows how she removed huge layers of anger and hurt not only from this lifetime but from beyond. And what kept her former husband and her returning for seven lifetimes? It was their inability to forgive. Every experience has molded who you are today. They've defined you and have shaped your reaction to life's circumstances. What matters most is that your new life, the one you were meant to live, can start now. If your life isn't happy or you find yourself repeating the same relationships, why not shorten your learning curve? Read Julia's story. Discover how forgiveness, combined with claiming your emotions, can take happiness from a dream to reality.

Five Lives Remembered Dolores Cannon 2009 THE BEGINNING What do you do when you discover information that is before its time? What do you do when your curiosity takes you on an adventure that is so bizarre that there is nothing "normal" to relate to? This is what happened to Dolores Cannon in 1968, long before she began her career as a past-life hypnotherapist and regressionist. Travel back with us to that time when the words "reincarnation, past-lives, regression, walk-ins, New Age" were unknown to the general population. This is the story of two normal people, who accidentally stumbled across past-lives while working with a doctor to help a patient relax. It began so innocently, yet it crossed the boundaries of the imagination to open up an entirely new way of thinking at a time when such a thing was unheard of. It went totally against the belief systems of the time. It was so startling that they should have stopped, but their curiosity demanded that they continue to explore the unorthodox. The experiment changed the participants and everyone involved, and their beliefs would never be the same. Dolores Cannon is now a world-renowned hypnotherapist who has explored thousands of cases in the forty years since 1968, and has written fifteen books about her discoveries. Her books are translated into more than 20 languages. She is teaching her unique form of hypnosis all over the world. When she lectures people ask, "How did you get started on all of this?" This is the story of her beginnings. The book was written in 1980, her very first book. It has laid dormant, gathering dust, until now, waiting. Now is the time for it to come forth. Enjoy the adventure!

Life Before Life Jim B. Tucker, M.D. 2005-09-01 For the past forty years, doctors at the University of Virginia Medical Center have conducted research into young children's reports of past-life memories. Dr. Ian Stevenson, the founder of this work, has always written for a scientific audience. Now, in this provocative and fascinating book, Dr. Jim B. Tucker, a child psychiatrist who currently directs the research, shares these studies with the general public. Life Before Life is a landmark work—one that has the potential to challenge and ultimately change our understandings about life and death. Children who report past-life memories typically begin talking spontaneously about a previous life when they are two to three years old. Some talk about the life of a deceased family member, while others describe the life of a stranger. They may recount details about previous family members, events in the previous life, or the way they died in that life. The children tend to show a strong emotional involvement with the apparent memories and often cry to be taken to the previous family. In many cases, parents have taken their children to the places they named, where they found that an individual had died whose life matched the details given by the child. During the visits, some children have recognized family members or friends from that individual's life. Many children have had birthmarks that matched wounds on the body of the deceased individual. Researchers have studied more than 2500 such cases, and their careful investigations have produced an impressive body of work. JAMA, the Journal of the American Medical Association, stated in a review of one of Dr. Stevenson's scientific books that, "in regard to reincarnation he has painstakingly and unemotionally collected a detailed series of cases . . . in which the evidence is difficult to explain on any other grounds." Life Before Life explores the various features of this world-wide phenomenon, describing numerous cases along the way. We meet a boy in Michigan who, after being born with three birthmarks that matched wounds on his deceased brother, begins talking about events from the brother's life; a boy in Turkey who gives a number of accurate details, including the name, of a man who lived 500 miles away and died fifty years before the boy was born; and a girl in Sri Lanka who is able to recognize the family members of a deceased stranger as they are presented to her one by one, giving specifics about their lives that she could not have known from their appearance. Dr. Tucker presents this material in a straightforward way, relating extraordinary stories that have been amassed with a scientific approach. He then considers how best to interpret the evidence, and he lets readers reach their own conclusions—which, for many, will be profound.
