New Scientist 1986-09-18 New Scientist magazine was launched in 1956 "for all those men and women who are interested in scientific discovery, and in its industrial, commercial and social consequences". The brand's mission is no different today - for its consumers, New Scientist reports, explores and interprets the results of human endeavour set in the context of society and culture.

Student Study Guide to Accompany Human Biology Sylvia S. Mader 2003-08 This best-selling text emphasizes the relationship between humans and other living things. Intended for an introductory course, this text provides students with a firm grasp of how their bodies function and how the human population can become more fully integrated into the biosphere. An Online Learning Center, tied directly to the text via icons, will direct students to activities or animations that gives a "visual example" of difficult processes as well as "Working Together" boxes to emphasize homeostasis.
